THE DISPATCH FOUNDED 1860 THE TIMES FOUNDED 1886.

WHOLE NUMBER 18,576.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

U'GORMAN NAMED AS U. S. SENATOR FROM NEW YORK

Deadlock Ends With Election of Supreme Court Justice.

THEN, ALL SING "TAM-MAH-NEE"

Insurgents, Headed by Senator Roosevelt, Finally Capitulate and Vote for Candidate Put Up by Murphy, the Tammany Chieftain-Long a Wigwam Leader.

Court Justice James Aloysius O'Gorheld in the Empire State, son the fluit ballot, the sixty-fourth, be received 112 votes to 80 cast for Chauncey M. Depew, whose term expired March 4.

had been adjourned from day to day since Monday.

At the close of a day of almost continuous negotiations the Insur-gents capitulated and Justice O'Gorman was elected. A few minutes be-fore the ballot was cast Justice O'Gorman's resignation from the bench was filed at the office of Secretary of State, as a constitutional provision would have prohibited his election while holding the office of justice of the Supreme Court. Wild Applause Marks End,

Wild applause marked the end of the long contest, and the Legislature,

The election of Julge O'Gorman but meet with the approval of the citizens of this State, regardless of party. He will rank with the ablest

Judge O'Gorman needs no commendation from any one, and the public will undoubtedly see that in the tricus upon the assurance that no names be submitted outside of their list of eleven, balked at this changed program. They failed to appear at the morning caucus, and a postpone-ment was held until 3 P. M.

Meanwhile a committee representing the Regulars was arguing with the Insurgents who were in conference at the residence of their leader, Senator Roosevelt, and finally fourteen of them voted to put an end to the strug. gle by accepting Justice O'Gorman One Insurgent did not vote, and the other eight were recorded against this proposition ..

a contingent of Insurgents, filed into the chamber about 4 o'cle burst of applause greeted them. "It's O'Gorman," some one yelled, and then the din became deafening. And O'Gorman it was when the first ballot was concluded. The ballot showed a total of 100 present and voting, apportioned in this way:

James A. O'Gorman, 63; William F. Sheehan, 23; Isador Straus, 5; D. Cady

Herrick, 4; John D. Kernan, 4; Alton B. Parker, 1; William Sulzer, 1. The vote for O'Gorman, on motion, was then made unanimous.

Senators Roosevelt and Burd, followed by a number of other Insurgents who had not participated in the caucus, filed into the chamber to a mingled chorus of cheers and jeers. Sing "Tam-Mab-Nee."

"Tam-Mah-Nee! Tam-Mah-Nee!" sang out some one, and half the members joined in the chorus, drowing the voice of the Speaker. In vain pounded the desk with the gavel. Members were hugging one another in their joy at this ending of the wearying struggle, and they continued to howl and sing and scream The House will please be in order," persisted the Speaker.

"Yow! Yow!" screeched the assemblage, "Tam-Mah-Nee! Tam-Mah-Nee!" was some minutes before order could be restored and the formal rattfication of the caucus decree begun. .

When the name of Senator Brackett, (Continued on Seventh Page.)

TO UPHOLD DECISION

Justice Gould Adopts Wright's Opinion in Bucket-Shop Case, Washington, D. C., March 31.—Justice Ashley M. Gould, of the Supremo Court of the District of Columbia, announced to-day his determination to nounced to-day his determination to adopt the opinion of Justice Wright declaring unconstitutional the attempt by Congress to pass special "antibucketing" legislation.

Justice Gould has had under consideration the denurrers filed by Price & Co., of Baltimore, to an indictment charging William B. Price and eight others with conspiracy, and another indictment with conducting a bucketshop.

others with conspiracy, and another indictment with conducting a bucket-shop.

That the victory gained by the decision of Justice Wright and the concurrence of Justice Gould will be a "vacant" one, even if the Court of Appeals should sustain the invalidity of the law, is an opinion expressed to-day by members of the local bar. Since the Court of Appeals, they point out, has decided in the Wade case that a bucket-shop is a gambling place under the Code which porhibits setting up a gaming table, it will only be necessary for the government to secure new indictments charging conspiracy to commit the crime of gaming.

The belief is expressed that such indictments would hold, in view of the fact that the Court of Appeals, the court of last resort in criminal cases in the District of Columbia, has decided against the bucket-shops.

CURTAIN RUNG DOWN

Indictments Against World and Dela-ven Smith Noile Prossed.

Ven Smith Noile Prossed.

Washington, D. C., March 31.—The curtain was rung down to-day on the celebrated Panama libel suit against the Press Publishing Company, proprietor of the New York World, and Delayen Smith, publisher of the Indianapolis News, when United States Attorney Wilson requested permission of Justice Wright, in the Criminal Court, to enter a noile pross.

The United States Supreme Court had decided the cases in favor of the defendants.

pew, whose term expired March 4.

The result was in doubt almost to the minute of recording the votes, owing to the uncertainty as to how many of the Democratic Insurgents, who for over two months had prevented an election because of their opposition to William F. Sheehan, would enter the second caucus which had been adjourned from day to day

COWBOYS IN PURSUIT

Lynching.

Las Vegas, N. M., March 31.—Headed for the "bad lands," near the Oklahoma line, four bandits who kidinapped the two-year-old son of A. T. Rogers, Jr., an attorney of this city, and compelled the payment of a $12,000 rangom, are to-night closely pursued by deputies with the prospect of a conflict.

the long contest, and the Legislatpre, driven from the State Capitol by Wednesday's fire, quickly adopted a resolution adjourning until April 17.

Governor Dix. to-night expressed gratification at the result.

"The State of New York," he said. "has elected for its representative in the Federal Senate an eminent jurist, a man of pronounced ability, of great attainments and of the highest character.

Bloodhounds are used in the chase. A message from a ranch sixty miles four men, believed to be the bandits, passed there riding at full gallop. Cowboys from the ranch started after the fugilities. They had ropes for a lynching in case the kidnappers should be captured. The kidnappers are believed to be members of a gang of post-office and bank robbers, all ex-convicts. A reward of $20,000 has been offered for the kidnappers, dead or alive.

MAY MEAN LAWSUITS

Destruction of Records at Alba Promises to Cause Legal Tangle. of party. He will rank with the ablest statesmen the Senate has known, will well represent the Empire State and bestow honor upon the party that cleeted him.

"I am gratified at this solution of the problem which has confronted the Democratic members of the Legislatium for the past ten weeks."

Promises to Cause Legal Tangle. New York, March 31.—The destruction of nearly 250 volumes of Dutch and English manuscripts in the State Capitol is likely to result in numerous lawsuits to determine the title to many of the streets in outlying sections of the Wyork City.

The title in some of these old roads

ture for the past ten weeks."

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, who for weeks has been striving to bring about the election of Mr. Sheehan, expressed himself as highly pleased at the outcome. highly pleased at the outcome.
"No better selection could have been made by the party after the unfair and unmerited defeat of Mr. Sheehan, whose position before the people has been greatly, strengthened," said Mr. Murphy.

Ownership of the land in a thoroughfare came up, it was necessary to consult the records at Albany, which covered the period from 1630 to 1787. Most of this property is now being developed for suburban homes, and the destruction of the records will mean a difficult legal tangle.

REGISTER PROTEST

will undoubtedly see that in the triumph of the majority rule and in sustaining the party caucus the power of the party and its opportunities to serve the people have been greatly increased."

Insurgents Balk.

Last night it was understood that a Senator would be selected to-day from a list of eleven submitted by the insurgents. Early this morning Mr. Murphy came to Albany and coincidently reports were spread that Justice O'Gorman had been selected as the choice of the Democratic organization. The insurgents, who had about made up their minds to enter the cautmade up their minds to enter the cautmade and the interest of the parcels post measure on the ground that with the rates proposed it would result in a large cities to the detriment of small towns and farmers. The convention favored the repeal of the national bankrupty act, and launched a protest against the rates charged by express com-

STUDENTS CATCH NEGRO

Walter Had Shot Fellow Employe at Memorial Hall.

Cambridge, Mass., March 31.—Three Cambridge police officers arrested Charles Roachford, a negro walter at Memoral Hall, Harvard University, just s several hundred infuriated Harvare as several hundred inturated Harvard students caught the colored man a mile from the college grounds, after he had shot and probably fatally wounded an-other negro waiter. Heath Hughes, in the dining hall at the college this af-

TRIBESMEN VICTORIOUS

Defent Government Force, Killing Twenty Men.

Fez, Morocco, March 31.—The rebel enictir tribesmen have defeated a Beniciti tribesmen have defeated a government force, killing twenty soldiers and wounding fifty. This rebel success has resulted in a number of other tribes, which hitherto had been neutral, joining the revolt.

Aged Veteran Dead.

Atlanta, Ga., March 31.—General Alfred Iverson, veteran of the Mexican and Civli Wars, and son of the late Alfred Iverson, United States Senator, died here to-day. He was eighty-two years old. General Iverson distinguished himself during the Civil Werby capturing the only, major-general taken by the Confederates, General Stoneman. Stoneman.

Ship Surgeon a Suicide.

Galveston, Texas. March 31.—Dr. Carl Buck, ship surgeon of the North German-Lloyd liner Koeln, which arrived to-day, committed suicide March 29 for no known cause. He shot himself through the heart. Dr. Buck was buried at see Differences Adjusted.

Chicago, Ill., March 31.—Wage differences between the Illinois Central Railroad and its telegraphers were adjusted to-day, and the keymen win an advance in wages approximating $60 a year. The total increase granted is $79.204 a year. 379,204 a year.

INDORSEMENT IS NOT UNANIMOUS

DelegateCriticizes Some Enrico Alfano Holds of Anti-Saloon League Leaders.

VOTE IS FAVORED ON STATE-WIDE

Report of Committee on Temperance Creates Discussion, but Is Adopted by Methodist Conference-Conferees on Randolph-Macon Matter Elected.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch 1

163 votes cast. T. T. Fishburne re-ceived 127, Dr. F. J. Prettyman, 111, and Dr. H. P. Hamill, 82. These three were declared elected. This probably ends the Randolph-Macon matter for this conference.

In his opening remarks, Bishop Hoss, who returned from the Orient last year, said there was great growth there, but that the work was in its infancy. There were 2,500 Protestant missionaries in China, but according If They Catch Bandits There Will Be to population that was equal to twelve in the whole State of Virginia.

Lynching,

The question "Are all the control of the control of

The question, "Are all the ministers blameless in their lives and official administration?" was called for the Washington, Baltimore and Winches ter districts. There was nothing against any of the ministers, and as each name was called the pastor made a report of the work during the Conference Is Progressing.

The reports showed as a whole that the conference was progressing, both spiritually and materially. Collections were better than in previous years, and it was noted that the missionary collections in nearly every instance were paid in full, and sometimes

The report of the committee on temperance was presented. It created some discussion, but was adopted as submitted. It recommended that in asmuch as there had been an attempt on the part of the papers and people opposed to the Anti-Saloon League to injure the characters and usefulness of its leaders, that this conference express its approval of the men and their course. It favored the passage by the Legislature of an enabling act to al-low a vote on State-wide prohibition, similar to the Strode bill, offered at It favored the pass age of a State law, preventing the shipment of liquor into dry territory. It favored the passage of the local option bill in Maryland, and expressed approval of the passage of the bill to allow a vote on State-wide prohibi-tion in West Virginia. It asked for the passage by Congress of a bill preventing the interstate shipments of liquor into dry States or dry territory. It requested the bishop to assign -ev J. H. Light, now of Front Royal, to work with the Anti-Saloon League at its headquarters ..

Object to Indorsement. Rev. D. H. Kern, of Staunton, stated that he was opposed to that part indorsing the leaders of the Anti-Saloon League. He thought that this con ference had nothing to do with it, that it was the duty of the body of which they were officers. In addition, he said that personally he knew some of the leaders who would not only not be acceptable as ministers in this conference, but who would not be accepted as laymen. He moved that that part of the report be

Dr. J. H. Light responded in a speech vigorously defending the officers of the league. In replying, Mr. Kern said that in his remarks he had not referred to any minister of any denomination, but that he knew men who were recognized as leaders in the who were far from being the men that they should be. The vote was taken, and while it was very light one, it was apparent that the report had an overwhelfing ma-

Following the report, Rev. J. D. Mc-Allister, one of the secretaries of the league, was introduced, and he made a strong address. He impressed upon his hearers the fact that no saloon could exist in the State of Virginia without the consent of the people of the State, and that the saloonkeeper was not to be blamed for the damage done by the traffic, but the people themselves. They had made the trouble, and they must get rid of it. They can stop it whenever they choose. Governor Mann had declared that a large majority of the petitions for pardon he had re-ceived stated that the guilty person committed the deed whife under nfluence of liquor. He followed with able remarks on the principles for which the Anti-Saloon League stands. Following the address of Mr. Mc-Allister and the vote on the report, the conference was addressed by E. II. Rowe, representative of the Southern Seminary, at Buena Vista, and the Alleghany Collegiate Institute, at Al-derson, W. Va., and he spoke of the good work being done, at Bowling

Need of Quiet Sundays. Dr. Edward Thompson, of Fort Worth, Texas, the genial secretary of the Sabbath Observance League of America, spoke of the need of quiet thoughtful Sundays. He attributed the downfall of the Roman empire and the decay of the Spanish power to the fact that they were lax in observance of the day of rest. He thought that England's growth was due to the fact that her laws taught the proper observance of the day. By giving us (Continued on Third Page.)

HEAD OF CAMORRA GROWS DRAMATIC

RICHMOND, VA., SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 1911.

Crowd in Court Spellbound.

HE IS INNOCENT OR GREAT ACTOR

Never Before Has Italian Court of Justice Heard Such Scathing Arraignment as Comes From Lips of Alleged Prince of Criminals-Denies All Charges.

Viterbo, March 31 .- The lovers of the dramatic lm ' their fill at to-day's ors' reports, and the temperance session of the dial of the thirty-six Baltimore Conference at its meeting fano, generally called Erricone, the Terror of Italy, reputed to be the actual head of the criminal organization. was under interrogation and held the spectators spellbound with the eloquence of his denials.

The man is innocent or a consum-mate actor. As he proceeded the slender figure seemed to grow until it dominated the courtroom, and friends and enemies alike strank from the gaze that he fixed, first upon one and then another, while he poured forth authorities that has ever been heard in an Italian court of justice.

"I am a victim of yellow journal-ism," he cried. "I have been ruined by carbineers, who have made me appear as an assassin." Erricone could not have done it bet-take a place before the bar. Quietly Erricone stepped forth and assumed a natural attitude, without any at-tempt at the theatrical, just in front of the justice's bench.

of the justice's bench.

Denies the Accusations.

He replied to the preliminary questions in a voice that was penetrating, but not loud. He denied categorically the accusations of the informer, Gennaro Abbatemaggio. He said that he was not in a position to condemn the Caoccolos te death.

"The story that r have ever been the head of the Chnorra is a legond," he said. "I was neither its head nor its tail."

He admitted that in youth he was arroganc and quarrelsonie, and even had committed some excesses. "But, he asked, "what youth of my class in Naples has not been arrogant, quarrelsonie and guilty of boyish excessos."

As the questioning proceeded Erricone showed signs of irritation, finally trembling with excitement. As the thrusts of the president and crown prosecutor went home, Erricone's face hardened with anger until he looked like a savage animal about to spring upon its prey. Suddenly he abandened sell attempts at composure and gave free rein to his feelings in a peroration that was truly eloquent.

Says Character Was Ruined. Having admitted his youthful excesses Erricone declared that his clonalism of that newspaper, the Mattino." Confinuing, he said, "that is why, although I now regret the deed, all my nerves rehelled as a member of the staff of that paper approached me, when I was arraigned in court as a murderer, and I could not help spitting in his face.

"Then the carabineers damned me by making me appear an assassin. To call us assassins is inhuman cruelty. No one has a right to so stigmatize us, not even a confessed criminal, who, to serve his own ends, becomes an informer only after he had been condemed."

President Bianchi, interrupting, besched Erricone to calm himself, but He admitted that in youth he was demned."

President Bianchi, interrupting, beseeched Erricone to calm himself, but the only effect was to cause the prisoner to burst into tears, and, sobbling violently, he continued.

"For four years I have suffered persecution and martyrdom. Constantly before my eyes is a picture of my dear, innocent brother dying in a prison cell adjoining my own. In my ears ring his laments as he passed through the agony of death. He was young, and the beautiful image of his Creator. He died innocent."

Other Prisoners Affected.

Other Prisoners Affected. For a moment Erricone paused, and the only sound came from the prisoners' cage, where Gennaro Ibelli, alleged head of the Camorra in the Vesuvian villages, leaning his head against the steel bars, cried like a child.

"Do you really believe there is such a thing? Why, those are stories of other times." prisoner was well prepared for to-day's examination, which was a

(Continued on Seventh Page.)

News and Scenes From the "Front'

A page of pictures, showing interesting scenes of camp life on the Mexican border with the American troops now there, will be one of the many interesting features of to-morrow's Times-Dispatch. The intest news from the "front" will be published, as it is received directly into this office over the wires of two great press associations. One other feature of unusual interest at this time, just prior to the reconvening of Congress, is a story by John Elfreih Watkins on "A Unique Congress," this being a clever discussion of the leading men who are to take part in that Congress and the measures that are to be considOPENS HIS CAMPAIGN

ter if he had rehearsed the part for years. He begar modestly and calmly, gradually raising his voice and displaying his emotions until he had his auditors enthralled. One could have heard a pin drop when President Bianchi commanded Erricone to come from the prisoners' steel cage and take a place before the bar chiefty. DISCREDITED

El Paso, Tex., March 31.—The bloodiest and most important battle of the Mexican insurrection thus far in the State of Sonora is ended after two days of stubborn lighting, which began on Monday near Ures and San Rafaet. Although the insurrectos outnumbered Although the insurrectos outnumbered Reports to the contrary, Secretary Reports to the contrary, Secretary Reports a number of women were on hand, while not a few Republicans mental notes for use in the years to come. More than one of these assisted in the applause at the denunciation launched in Cleeronian eloquence at Senator Claude A. Swanson, depicted by the Lynchburg Congressman as akin to a modern Catilline. obtain re-enforcements and additional ammunition from Hermosillo, and the that direction.

An aroundation treaty, and anything in the contraction treaty, and the contraction treaty and trea men were engaged on both sides. town of San Rafael had been destroyed by fire is discredited, as the town cor sists almost entirely of adobe houses with mud roofs, which are practically fire-proof. It is believed the loss of Both Send for Reinforcements. A stubbornly fought and bloody bat-tle between 300 Insurrectos and 200 Federal troops has raged around the little town of Santa Barbara, southwes of the city of Chihushua, since Wednesday morning, according to a received here last night from gram Parral. Both sides have sent for re life has been heavy, however, child.

There was a sigh of relief among the spectators when Erricone got his feelings under control, and launched into a denunciation of Abbotemaggio. He described the informer as a poor young man whom he had helped by giving him employment.

The crimes laid at this man's door are numberless, and the machinations with which he is credited almost beyond belief. At his headquarters in the Caffe Fortunio, where he received his agents, his victims and the police, Erricone was wont to smile blandly upon those who mentioned the Camorra, and say: inforcements.
Wednesday morning, according to

Officers of the insurrecto junta here while declaring they hope carnestly for peace again, to-day stated that there seems little prospect for ing mediate cessation of hostilities. Gonzales Garza, insurrecto secretary of state, says the army in the fletd will have the final vote on any peace negotiations, and that he does not be-lieve they will vote to accept any reports to the contrary, Secretary Knox, who attended the regular Cabinet meeting to-day, is not drafting part of the speech, and was particuan arbitration treaty, and the English larly marked at the times when Clyde

(Continued on Second Page.)

Country.

The administration, as represented by The administration, as represented by the State Department, is not insensible of the mighty public impulse toward and said he deferred much of his critical and he deferred much of his the State Department, is not insensible of the mighty public impulse toward disarmament, or, at reast, in favor of arbitration. If the only factors of the situation were Great Britain and the situation were Great Britain. This was principle to make a peace compact, and the signatures of both would be worth the signatures of both would have had the position. He denied any personal feeling in the matter, suggesting that the Governor hand have had the position. He denied any personal feeling in the matter, suggesting that the Governor hand was come from Great Britain.

Mr. Bryce, the British ambassador, has not visited the White House to have named such men as Dr. Lawrence of the University of Virginia.

Further, Mr. Glass charged that he had been approached on the subject of deferring his

Not Question of Initiative.

The question that holds the two countries apart on the great issue of permanent peace is not one of mere initiative—of which shall be first or last to make the first move. The deadly significance of the impasse which exists is that Great Britain apparently does not dare to propose arbitration to the United States. Or, to state the situation with more exactness, she is withheld by the Anglo-Japanese alliance of August, 1965, from taking the initiative. The inference is unavoidable that if an arbitration covering all possible subjects of dispute is to be proposed, the United States must make the proposal.

Why does not the American is unavoidable that if an arbitration covering all possible subjects of dispute is to be proposed. Toward the end of Mr. Glass's speech.

of twenty-five ruraies charged on the fine surrected lines and succeeded in reaching the municipal building, but were cut off from the main Federal body. They took refuge in the building, but the telegram does not reveal their fate.

Bravery on Both Sides.

Finding himself outnumbered. Colonel Arzamendi, in command of the Federal troops, sent to Parrai for required reaching for the defensive all fines official authorities in Washington, the United States would gain not hing for the peace of the world by onel Arzamendi, in command of the Federal troops, sent to Parrai for required research and the insurrecto leaders are said to have dispatched measures are said to have dispatched measurement, and the insurrecto leaders are said to have dispatched measurement of Madero and Orozco on a similar cervand.

Reinforcements came out from Hermosillo, and the battle was raging Wednesday, when the advices received here were written.

The battle that is being fought at San Rafael is the most important engagement of the revolution in this state.

There are 700 revolutionists and some 1,000 Federals. It is a standing fight. The revolers knew that the proceeding in the defect of the fight of the proceeding in the states.

Boa't Think Peace Imminent.

Don't Think Peace Imminent.

make war on the United States.

Jug-Handled Arrangement.

An Anglo-American arbitration treaty would effectually prevent the United States from making war on England, but it would effect this country no projection at all should we become embroiled with Japan. In the opinion of American diplomats, such an arrangement would be of the jug-handled kind. An arbitration treaty between kind. An arbitration treaty between

GLASS DECLARES VIRGINIA PAPER HAS SOLD OUT

Says He Cannot Buy Advertising Space in Its Columns.

DESIRES DEBATE WITH OPPONENT

In Opening Speech He Criticizes

Mann's Appointment of Swanson, Excoriates Machine Rule and Takes Shots at Immie Trehy and Clyde Saunders.

WILL NOT TELL

Mr. Glass was asked last night by The Times-Dispatch reporter to name the paper which he asserted had been subsidized by his oppo-neuts, and which had declined to print his announcement even as paid advertisement.

Mr. Glass declined to disclose the same of the paper, saying, however, that no one would think it a Richmond paper.

Employing to the full those powers of sarcasm for which he is justly famed, and in the exercise of which he is unsurpassed in the political world of the State, Carter Glass last night charged the "machine" with all sorts charged the "machine" with all sorts of crimes against the body politic, asserted that he himself had been persecuted for daring to be a candidate, and charged that some one is subsidizing a portion of the press.

The latter was by far the most serious accusation brought to the control of the press.

Fighting Is Fierce, but Only 2,000 Men Are Engaged.

Treaty With Japan Acts as Bar to Closer Anglo-American Relations.

Relations.

THAT MANY REPORTED DEAD

SUDDEN LULL IN PEACE TALK

Proposed Pact Might Be Positive

Proposed Pact Might Be Positive

This page: had published a mendactous attack upon him and then had declined to print a reply from Mr. Glass, stating that its columns had been sold to the other side.

Has Large Crowd.

Perhaps a thousand people heard Music.

Perhaps a thousand people heard Mr. Glass at the Academy of Music. Quite a number of women were on

His remarks were well received. This was especially true in the early Read His Speech.

Toward the end of Mr. Glass's speech the applause was not so marked, but rangement would be of the jug-handled kind. An arbitration treaty between Germany and the United States would he accord him that title. Occasionally is such entanglements as those of Japan (Continued on Third Page.)

of Senator Swanson, and much less did the accord him that title. Occasionally he said "my opponent," yet for the most part he preferred the term "the Governor's temporary appointee," also